lumine

creator invoice template

INVOICE

Invoice number

Invoice date

Payment due (e.g. 15 days)

From (creator)

Name

Address

Email / phone

PAN

GSTIN (if registered; otherwise leave blank)

Bill to (brand)

Brand name

Address

Email / contact

GSTIN (if shared)

Purchase order / brief ref (optional)

Deliverables

#	Description of work (e.g. 1 Instagram reel, November 2026)	Qty	Amount (INR)
1
2
3
4
5
6

Subtotal
GST (only if you are GST-registered)
Total payable

Bank details (for payment)

Account holder name

Bank name

Account number

IFSC

UPI ID (optional)

Payment terms

When and how you will be paid (e.g. 100% within 15 days of delivery, by NEFT/UPI to the account above)

TDS note

If tax is deducted at source under the Income-tax Act (for example section 194J on professional fees, or section 194R on a benefit or perquisite), please deduct only as required by law, show the deduction on the payment advice, and share Form 16A. Thresholds and rates change. Confirm the current rule on the Income Tax Department website (incometaxindia.gov.in / incometax.gov.in) before deducting. This is not tax advice.

Notes: Number every invoice and keep a copy. If you are not GST-registered, do not charge GST and leave GSTIN blank. If you are GST-registered, add SAC/HSN, taxable value and the GST breakup, and follow GST invoicing rules on gst.gov.in. This template is provided by lumine (lumineapp.co/creator-kit) for your own use. It is not tax, legal or financial advice. lumine is completely free for everyone and is not a party to your contract with the brand.